COMEX Spodumene

NEW BATTERY METAL FUTURES

Alongside the Fastmarkets battery raw materials suite of physical data, Fastmarkets also now covers COMEX Spodumene, a lithium-rich mineral used in the manufacturing of batteries.

These new futures are available in the Multi Price Table, Historic Price Table, Price Chart and Single Price tile widgets. To view settlement price history, access the symbols in the Price Chart widget to see the daily settlement.

COMEX Chicago No1 Busheling Futures

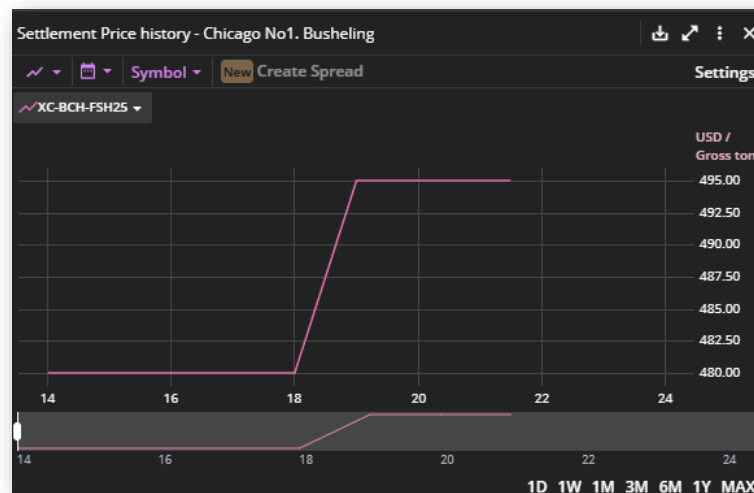

NEW FERROUS METALS FUTURES

The existing Comex Busheling contract will cease trading following expiry of the December 2025 contract month – read the FAQ to find out more about this. The new Chicago No1 Busheling contract is designed to better reflect the hedging needs of the ferrous scrap industry and is available for trading.

Paper & Pulp Market Pages and Newsletters

GLOBAL PULP, GLOBAL NONWOVENS PRICES & NEWS; AND TISSUE NEWS

New prebuilt Market Pages to cover a broader set of news and prices for Pulp and Nonwovens; and Tissue news.

These Market Pages are available under the "All Markets" section of the Dashboard, under their respective commodity category. You can subscribe to receive the content via daily and weekly newsletters, available under the "Newsletters & reports" section.

How to access

- Access Market Pages via "All Markets" section on the Dashboard – find the relevant prebuilt page under the related commodity category.
- Access Newsletters via "Newsletters & reports" section on the Dashboard – find the newsletter under the related commodity category.
